PRACTICE AREAS AND EXPERTISE

Criminal Defense

Litigation

Gary Pelletier is an accomplished white collar crime and major felony defense litigator and has practiced before state and federal courts in over seven jurisdictions in high profile matters. His experience includes representing clients indicted or facing indictment for white collar offenses such as commercial bribery, bribery of public officials, mail and wire fraud, securities fraud, honest services fraud, antitrust crimes, computer and cyber crimes, criminal copyright infringement, perjury and false statements, obstruction of justice and contempt and other criminal offenses such as murder, robbery, assault and battery and state and federal OUI/DUI offenses. Mr. Pelletier also has extensive experience representing actions before the SEC, FINRA (formerly NASD), and attorneys, physicians, and nurses facing disciplinary sanctions before state licensing agencies.

Mr. Pelletier previously served as a law clerk for the federal judges, the Honorable Robert C. Chambers of the United States District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia and the Honorable David R. Hensen of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Mr. Pelletier earned his J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School; his LL.M. in criminal and constitutional law from New York University School of Law and his A.B. in history and creative writing with honors from Brown University. He is admitted to practice law in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New York, the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts and the Southern, Eastern and Northern Districts of New York, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First, Fourth, and Eighth circuits.
