Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West and United Way of Rhode Island schedule final seminar in their 2010 nonprofit leadership forums

Providence, RI (October 18, 2010) – The final session in the year-long series of joint seminars for nonprofit leaders co-sponsored by Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) and United Way of Rhode Island (UWRI) will focus on employment law issues and will highlight concerns regarding e-communications in the workplace. The event is scheduled to take place on Wednesday, Nov. 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., at UWRI’s headquarters, 50 Valley St., Providence. PLDW Partner William E. O’Gara, who has concentrated his practice for 25 years in the area of employment law, will lead the final seminar.

The 2010 seminar series is a continuation of the PLDW and UWRI partnership that was initiated last year in an effort to provide executive directors, chief executive officers, board members and executive staff of nonprofit organizations with cutting edge tools for managing their organization in a fast changing legal environment.

Entitled “Managing Your Organization’s Future: Strategies for 21st Century Nonprofit Organizations,” these seminars offer a “nuts and bolts” approach for decision-makers in a challenging industry while also addressing important regulatory and compliance issues confronting leadership.

Gary R. Pannone, Managing Partner at PLDW, who together with UWRI CEO Tony Maione initiated the seminar series and partnership said, “We are pleased to participate in this endeavor and support the nonprofit community by providing insight with respect to the regulatory environment confronted by nonprofit organizations during challenging times.”

“We’re grateful to Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West for sharing their expertise and insights as part of this seminar series,” said Anthony Maione, president & CEO, United Way of Rhode Island. “We encourage our colleagues in the nonprofit sector to attend so they can gather critical information to further enhance their operational performance.”

PLDW was founded in March 2006 by former partners in an international law firm who decided to establish a more efficient model to deliver legal services on a regional basis. PLDW has quickly become a well recognized leader in the industry by colleagues and rating services in the New England and New York regions.

The platform at Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West is structured to deliver large firm expertise and business consulting in a more cost-effective manner than the larger firms. PLDW partners and staff embrace a culture of commitment to ‘client and community’ which is reflected in its support of the communities it serves as well as being recognized as a ‘Best Places to Work’ in Rhode Island for three years in a row (2008, 2009, 2010) by Providence Business News and The Best Companies firm, an independent research company. The firm was recently named by U.S. News and Best Lawyers® as a 2010 Best Law Firms in America for Rhode Island, and will be recognized as a 2010 Partner in Philanthropy during the 23rd Annual National Philanthropy Day ceremonies, sponsored locally by the Rhode Island Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals later this month.

For more information about the seminar and to pre-register, please call PLDW’s Geri Riccio at 401-824-5100 or contact Ms. Riccio by email at griccio@pldw.com.
