PLDW Attorney Jillian N. Jagling Releases Advisory on Enforcement Efforts to Fight Fraud, Waste and Abuse in Health Care

Providence, RI – December 2, 2014 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Health Care Attorney Jillian N. Jagling released an advisory, The “HEAT” is on When It Comes to Fraud, Waste and Abuse in Health Care, to help health care providers understand the need for compliance with federal and state regulations. The essay outlines government oversight agencies, programs and policies that have been established to combat fraud, waste and abuse in health care and describes the increased coordination among state, federal and local enforcement activities, as well as the intensity of these efforts to fight against fraud in the health care industry.

“Over the last five years, fraud, waste and abuse enforcement efforts have resulted in the recovery of billions of taxpayer dollars,” Attorney Jagling said. “Health care providers of all types must take notice and be vigilant to ensure compliance with federal and state regulations and systematically address incidents of noncompliance.”

Attorney Jagling is an Associate with PLDW and a member of the firm's Health Care and Corporate & Business Teams. She is an accomplished health care law attorney with significant experience in the area of state and federal health industry compliance laws and regulations. Prior to joining the firm, she was an attorney at Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Rhode Island where she was responsible for drafting and negotiating various types of contracts for all areas of the company, managing the Company's litigation case load and providing guidance to senior level executives on complex and diverse matters, as a business partner and to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations.
