PLDW Attorneys Joel K. Goloskie and Jillian N. Jagling Release Advisory on “Advanced Care Planning” Eligibility and Reimbursement Rules

Providence, RI – December 29, 2015 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) business and health care attorney, Joel K. Goloskie, released an advisory, Advanced Care Planning, to alert eligible providers that the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) will begin reimbursing for certain Advanced Care Planning (ACP) services on January 1, 2016. The advisory is co-authored with Attorney Jillian N. Jagling, and provides detailed information about the conditions and coding requirements for ACP visits and how they can be billed in conjunction with a patient’s annual wellness visit. “ACP visits are a best-practice element of today’s coordinated health care delivery model and directly contribute to the cost-containment critical to success in any accountable care arrangement,” said Attorney Goloskie. “We are pleased to share this advisory with our provider community to help them stay informed and updated.”

Attorney Goloskie’s business, health care and litigation practice and experience is extensive. He has represented clients in matters from compliance and HIPAA privacy matters to regulatory filings and approvals, contract drafting and management, and mergers and acquisitions. He has assisted health care clients as they dealt with deferred prosecution agreements, and has represented clients in both civil and criminal matters in federal court. Prior to becoming an attorney, he was the founder of a highly successful health care consulting firm, which provided reimbursement, compliance and strategic advisory services to over sixty hospitals in fifteen states. Attorney Goloskie’s unique combination of knowledge and skill provides clients with a deep range of experience to help them solve complex legal, health care and business matters.

Attorney Jagling is an accomplished health care law attorney with significant experience in the area of state and federal health industry compliance laws and regulations. Her practice includes providing counsel on issues ranging from health care industry compliance, including Medicare, Medicaid and fraud, waste and abuse, to for-profit and nonprofit corporate formation and dissolution, contract drafting, negotiations and interpretation, trademarks and advising clients on multiple business and municipal matters. In addition to her health care practice, Attorney Jagling is a member of PLDW's Municipal Infrastructure and Corporate & Business Teams.
