Brian J. Lamoureux, Partner at Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West, adds title of Adjunct Assistant Professor of Business Law at Providence College School of Business

Providence, RI – July 23, 2013 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Brian J. Lamoureux, an accomplished business litigator and a widely recognized legal authority on the use of social media in businesses and schools, will expand his professorial courses as an Adjunct Assistant Professor in Providence College’s (PC) School of Business this fall. Attorney Lamoureux has taught Legal Environment for Business at PC for three years. Beginning in September, he will teach four sections of the course per semester during the 2013-2014 academic year.

“I am excited to expand upon my love for the law and teaching by combining both in a more robust role at my alma mater,” said Attorney Lamoureux. “I am very grateful that my law partners have allowed me to pursue my passion for teaching while continuing to maintain my busy law practice at the firm.”

Mr. Lamoureux is a PC graduate, Class of 1994, with a B.A. in Political Science, cum laude, and earned his J.D., magna cum laude, from the Syracuse University College of Law. At the same time, he received a Master of Public Administration from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs. He also holds a Master of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Rhode Island, where he was a teaching assistant in American Government and International Relations.

In his law practice at PLDW, Attorney Lamoureux is a member of the firm's Litigation, Employment Law and Corporate & Business Counseling Teams. His practice areas are extensive and include complex commercial litigation, employment issues, social media law, creditors' rights, surety law, construction law, structured settlement transfers, and student loan bankruptcy matters.

He has been recognized for his achievements by the Providence Business News and was selected as a member of its 2011 40 Under Forty Class. Attorney Lamoureux has also become nationally known as an authority on the legal issues relating to social media, and is also a frequent presenter, published author and broadcast commentator on the topic. His popular presentations and workshops incorporate the latest information from case law on social media use and provide practical tips for employers, educators, business leaders and other professionals. He has presented nationally to Fortune 150+ executives, schoolchildren, and thousands of business, marketing, education and human resource leaders in and beyond the local market.
