PLDW Attorney Jillian N. Jagling to be a Featured Presenter at the New Bedford Chapter of the American Academy of Professional Coders April 21 Seminar

Providence, RI – April 18, 2016 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Attorney Jillian N. Jagling, who is an accomplished health care attorney, will be a featured presenter at the New Bedford Chapter of the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC) seminar on “Insight into health care law and how it applies.” The event is scheduled for Thursday, April 21, 2016 at 5 p.m. at Southcoast Health Systems’ Business Center, 200 Mill Rd. in Fairhaven, MA. The AAPC is a national organization with over 500 local chapters that offer education and networking opportunities to medical coding professionals.

Attorney Jagling will lead a discussion on the “Legal and Practical Considerations for Coders from a Health Care Law Attorney’s Perspective.” Among the topics she will cover are the False Claims Act using case examples and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of the Inspector General’s 7 elements of an effective compliance program. The workshop qualifies for 1.5 credits. For more information, please visit www.aapc.com.

Attorney Jagling is a member of the firm's Health Care, Corporate & Business and Municipal Infrastructure Teams. Her practice includes providing counsel on issues ranging from health care industry compliance, including Medicare, Medicaid and fraud, waste and abuse, to for-profit and nonprofit corporate formation and dissolution, contract drafting, negotiations and interpretation, trademarks and advising clients on multiple business and municipal matters. Prior to joining PLDW, Ms.

Jagling was an attorney with a Rhode Island health insurer and served in the United States Army Reserves for eight years, during which time she was with the 3rd Legal Support Operations Unit in Boston, MA as a paralegal.
