PLDW Municipal Infrastructure Attorney Zachary H. Klein Co-Authors Feature Article in the P3 Bulletin Magazine

White Plains, NY – September 25, 2015 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Municipal Infrastructure Attorney Zachary H. Klein is a co-author of an article featured in the P3 Bulletin on Nassau County’s extensive use of public-private partnerships (P3) to deliver necessary services and public amenities to county residents in a cost-effective manner. The article, “Counting Upwards,” was co-authored with Rob Walker, the county’s Chief Deputy County Executive, and details a number of projects utilizing P3 arrangements for financing and development that are yielding dividends for residents and are models of success for municipalities throughout the U.S. The P3 Bulletin is an international magazine and digital resource providing in-depth updates on projects between the public and private sector to procure, build and manage public infrastructure.
