PLDW Partner Brian J. Lamoureux to be a Panelist and Speaker at the 12th Annual MCLE Municipal Law Conference

Providence, RI – March 4, 2014 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Brian J. Lamoureux, a national authority on social media and the law, will be a panelist and presenter at the 12th Annual Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) Municipal Law Conference on March 12, 2014 at Ten Winter Place, Boston, MA. Attorney Lamoureux is scheduled to present at 11 a.m. on the topic, “Social Media in the Municipal Context: Traps, Best Practices, and Recent Developments.” The event is co-sponsored by the Massachusetts Municipal Lawyers Association (MMLA) and Massachusetts Municipal Association (MMA).

“Social media use in the workplace is obviously a hot topic,” Lamoureux explains. “However, municipalities face additional challenges when dealing with social media, such as open records issues, First Amendment concerns, and the blurred lines when municipal officials use social media to campaign for their next office. I look forward to discussing these issues with the Massachusetts municipal lawyers, and providing some best practices for them to consider.”

Attorney Lamoureux is a member of the PLDW Litigation, Employment, and Corporate & Business Teams with an extensive practice in the areas of employment law, complex commercial litigation, social media law and creditors’ rights. He is a nationally-recognized speaker on cutting-edge legal issues relating to social media, and has presented to thousands of individuals on the subject matter, including Fortune 150+ executives, other business leaders, employers, students, educators and HR executives. His essays, webinars and broadcast commentaries on social media and workplace issues have been widely distributed by local and national multimedia companies. Attorney Lamoureux is also a frequent broadcast analyst on breaking news regarding legal issues associated with social media and the law. In addition to his law practice, Attorney Lamoureux is an Adjunct Assistant Professor of Business Law at Providence College, his alma mater.
