PLDW Partner Bruce H. Tobey to Present at 2014 National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA) Seminar for Public Agency Officials and Attorneys

White Plains, NY – November 14, 2014 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Bruce H. Tobey, a member of the firm's Municipal Infrastructure Team and nationally recognized legal advisor on alternative project delivery models and financing, will join a panel of experts at the 2014 National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA), National Clean Water Law Seminar, for a discussion on the topic of "Legal Considerations for Affordability and Innovative Financing Issues." The conference is being held November 19 - 21, 2014, at the Lowes Don CeSar Hotel, St. Pete Beach, FL. For more information about the NACWA and the conference, visit www.nacwa.org.

Attorney Tobey will present a primer on legal considerations surrounding the use of Public-Private Partnerships to achieve financial savings, operational excellence and risk minimization.

Attorney Tobey has more than 30 years of both public and private sector experience assisting municipalities, counties, public authorities and federal agencies, as well as private companies on environmental policy, programs, and financial and regulatory matters with a specialty in water and wastewater infrastructure, public-private partnerships, and other business development opportunities for sustainable communities. He is a leading U.S. water law authority and frequent guest speaker at national trade association events, and has testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Transportation and Infrastructure Committee's P3 Panel.
