PLDW Partner Josh J. Meyer Named to the Long Island Business News “Around 50 Awards” Class of 2015

White Plains, NY – September 24, 2015 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner and Deputy Director of the firm’s Municipal Infrastructure Team, Josh J. Meyer, has been named to the Long Island Business News “Around 50 Awards” Class of 2015. The recognition is presented to individuals who have achieved major accomplishments in their lives, professionally and in their contribution to the community. Attorney Meyer and other members of this year’s class will be honored at an awards ceremony scheduled for September 29, 2015, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury, NY.

“We congratulate Josh for receiving this award in recognition of the many achievements throughout his career,” said Teno A. West, PLDW Principal and Partner and Municipal Infrastructure Team Leader. “Josh is a leader in our practice, a dedicated mentor for our associates and committed to providing the highest quality work and counsel to our clients. We are delighted to celebrate this award with him that is so well-deserved.”

Attorney Meyer has served as lead negotiator and special procurement and contract counsel for municipal clients throughout the U.S. in connection with the privatization of numerous new and existing public infrastructure assets. Among his recent successes includes guiding the development of a privately financed, $260 million rehabilitation of the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Long Island, NY, the development and negotiation of a $1.2 billion contract to privatize operations, maintenance and management of Nassau County’s sewer system and the development and construction of a minor league ball park in Rockland County, NY. He routinely drafts and negotiates complex performance-based contracts with various national and international companies relating to the private design, construction and operation of water and wastewater systems, solid waste disposal facilities and energy-related projects. Attorney Meyer also provides legal, business, risk allocation and finance advice in structuring and developing procurement and contract documents for such projects. He has advised clients on all aspects of design and construction risk allocation, project financing, land acquisition and development, vendor procurement, contract negotiation, security for performance, environmental regulatory matters and labor issues.
