PLDW Partner Steven A. Torres is a Featured Panelist at the “Recycle Florida Today” 2015 Winter Summit

Boston, MA – January 13, 2015 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Steven A. Torres, a member of the firm’s Municipal Infrastructure Team and a leading authority on cutting edge projects in the areas of public-private partnerships (P3), solid waste, advance bio-mass technologies and renewable energy, is a featured panelist at the “Recycle Florida Today” 2015 Winter Summit on Thursday, Jan. 15 at 1:15 p.m. at the Sheraton Lake Buena Vista in Orlando, FL. The title of Attorney Torres’ presentation is “Getting to Yes: Structuring Balanced Contracts for Successful Recycling Project Partnerships.” For further information about the Summit, visit www.recyclefloridatoday.org.

“Getting to zero waste begins with collaboration and effective contracting strategies among sophisticated entities such as technology providers, owners, designers, EPC contractors, and waste companies,” said Attorney Torres. “As this industry grows, contracts can no longer be taken off-the-shelf, but must be specifically tailored and designed to the project and the project participants' needs and reasonable expectations.”

Attorney Torres is a highly skilled and experienced municipal construction and public-private partnership project advisor and legal counsel who has managed in excess of $1 billion in project value in the areas of utilities, water and wastewater, transportation, building construction and renewable energy. He concentrates his practice on advising clients on a wide range of public procurement and contracting issues in the areas of water, wastewater, solid waste, building construction, environmental permitting, construction and environmental litigation and renewable energy. Attorney Torres is Vice-President of the Design Build Institute of America (DBIA) North East Chapter, and a member of DBIA's National Water Markets Committee. He also serves as legal counsel to the Waste Conversion

Technology Association. He is a frequent lecturer at regional, national and international professional trade associations, and is a published author in the areas of municipal law, constitutional law, labor law, international law and construction and renewable energy.
