PLDW Partner Bruce H. Tobey Joins a National Panel of Experts on Public-Private Partnerships at “The Kentucky P3 Conference”

Boston, MA – October 17, 2016 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner and municipal infrastructure attorney Bruce H. Tobey, who is a leading U.S. water law authority and former Mayor of Gloucester, MA, will join a national panel of former public sector officials to discuss their perspectives and experiences on how to successfully implement public-private partnerships (P3) at The Kentucky P3: Public-Private Partnerships Conference scheduled for October 27 and 28, 2016 at the Griffin Gate Marriott Resort & Spa in Lexington, KY. The event is being sponsored by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with the National Council for Public-Private Partnerships.

“Best & Worst Practices Panel: A Local Government Perspective” will be held Friday, Oct. 28 from 11:45 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. and bring together Attorney Tobey and other former public sector thought leaders who will share “lessons learned” on P3 project implementations. Other panelists include Tony Kinn of Hannon Armstrong, former Director of the Virginia Office of Transportation Public-Private Partnerships and Dave Zelenok, Manager of Local Government Services for HR Green, Inc. and the former Chief Innovation Officer for the City of Centennial, CO. Moderating the conference session is J.D. Chey, Deputy Executive Director of the Kentucky League of Cities. For further information about the conference and to register, visit www.kychamber.com/events/p3conf.

Attorney Tobey is a prominent municipal infrastructure practitioner and nationally recognized as a legal advisor on alternative project delivery models and financing for cities and towns, counties, public authorities and federal agencies, as well as private companies on environmental policy, programs, and financial and regulatory matters with a concentration in water and wastewater infrastructure, public-private partnerships, and other business development opportunities for sustainable communities. With more than 30 years of both public and private sector experience, Attorney Tobey is a frequent guest speaker at national trade association events, and has testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Transportation and Infrastructure Committee's P3 Panel.

In addition to his public service as Mayor of Gloucester and law practice, Attorney Tobey is a past Chair of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Local Government Advisory Committee, and has served on the state's Federal Stimulus Task Force. He was the 2008 President of the Massachusetts Municipal Association (MMA) and served as the 2013 President of its subsidiary, the Massachusetts Municipal Councillors' Association (MMCA), and is a former Chair of the Massachusetts Local Government Advisory Commission (LGAC).
