Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West Partner William O’Gara invited as panelist for statewide seminar on ‘managing a multi-generational workforce’

Providence, RI (Sept. 16, 2010) – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner William E. O’Gara will participate in Providence Business News’ (PBN) workshop for corporate executives on Managing a Multi-generational Workforce: the challenges and benefits, Wednesday, Oct. 13, 2010 from 7:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the Providence Marriott on Orms Street. The seminar is sponsored by the AARP and the Society for Human Resource Management, and is free.

PBN Editor Mark Murphy will moderate the panel of experts, which includes O’Gara, Lori Searles, SVP of HR for Bank Rhode Island, Phyllis Cohn, AARP, Washington, DC and Alexis Devine, Youth Development at Lifespan. Breakfast will be served.

William E. O’Gara is a founding member of PLDW and is a highly respected labor and employment law practitioner who also has significant experience in litigating civil and administrative law matters before federal and state courts, administrative agencies, including the U.S. Department of Labor, Office of Occupational Safety and Health, the Rhode Island Commission on Human Rights and the Massachusetts Commission against Discrimination.

With 18 years of experience, Mr. O’Gara represents employers in matters ranging from sexual harassment to retirement issues. His diverse practice includes defending wrongful termination and discrimination claims, contract negotiations, and matters of union representation. O’Gara is a frequent contributor and editor of human resource and personnel policy handbooks and guides for small and large private and public sector entities. He is also the editor of the firm’s e-employment advisory and is regularly asked to speak before corporate executives on e-communications workplace and workforce policies in the Digital Age.
