PRACTICE AREAS AND EXPERTISE

Municipal Infrastructure

Josh J. Meyer is Senior Counsel with the firm and is a member of the Municipal Infrastructure team. He has national experience in the area of procurement law and routinely advises clients with respect to special contract and procurement matters. Mr. Meyer has served as lead negotiator and as special procurement and contract counsel for municipal governmental clients throughout the United States in connection with the privatization of numerous new and existing public infrastructure assets. He has drafted and negotiated complex performance-based contracts with various national and international companies relating to the private design, construction and management of water and wastewater systems, solid waste disposal facilities and energy-related projects. In addition, Mr. Meyer has provided legal, business, risk allocation and finance advice in structuring and developing procurement and contract documents, including operation and maintenance contracts, design/build contracts, design/build/operate contracts, guaranty agreements and requests for proposals. He has advised clients on all aspects of design and construction risk allocation, land acquisition and development, vendor procurement, contract negotiation, security for performance, environmental regulatory matters and labor issues.

Mr. Meyer's expertise includes developing and drafting requests for proposals and designing and streamlining the process for the execution of the privatization of local city and town utility services. His practice includes assisting his clients with respect to the financing and refinancing of infrastructure projects, including waste-to-energy facilities, landfill gas-to-energy facilities, industrial facilities, water and wastewater treatment facilities, residuals management facilities and other public and private projects.

Mr. Meyer earned his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School and his undergraduate degree in political science from Siena College. He is admitted to practice in, and a is member in good standing of the bar of, the State of New York.
