PLDO Partner Matthew C. Reeber is a Featured Speaker at the RI Chapter of the Labor and Employment Relations Association's 2018 Summer Breakfast Meeting

Attorney Reeber to Address Changing Employment Law Standards in a "Gig Economy"

Rhode Island – June 12, 2018 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & O’Gara LLC (PLDO) Partner Matthew C. Reeber, a prominent employment law attorney and litigator, will be a featured speaker at The Greater RI Chapter of the Labor and Employment Relations Association’s 2018 Summer Breakfast Meeting on Tuesday, June 19, 2018 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. at the Radisson Airport Hotel, 2081 Post Road in Warwick. Attorney Reeber will address the dynamics and significance of a “gig economy” and how temporary and project-base work is changing labor and employment law standards and the employer-employee relationship. For more information, visit RI LERA 2018 Summer Breakfast Meeting.

Attorney Reeber is a member of the firm’s Employment Law and Litigation Teams and a frequent speaker on employment law issues and advisor to employers concerning workplace matters. He has handled numerous cases arising under state and federal anti-discrimination and anti-retaliation statutes, wage and hour statutes, whistleblower statutes, family and medical leave statutes, unemployment compensation statutes and claims for wrongful termination. As part of his practice, he frequently appears before all Rhode Island state and federal courts, as well as administrative and regulatory agencies on behalf of his clients.

For the past seven years, he has been named a Rhode Island Super Lawyers Rising Star by Thomson Reuters, a distinction that recognizes the top 2.5 percent of New England lawyers under the age of forty or those in practice for ten years or less. Attorney Reeber earned his J.D. from Tulane University School of Law and his undergraduate degree in American Studies and History, cum laude, from Colby College. He is admitted to practice law in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York and Rhode Island.
