Specializing in alternative delivery public works projects

TENO A. WEST is a Partner with PLDW and leads the Municipal Infrastructure Team. His experience spans over 25 years as an innovator in government infrastructure projects. He is a nationally recognized expert in the areas of his practice including counseling clients with respect to environmental infrastructure projects including water, wastewater, combined sewer overflow, solid waste, co-composting, materials recovery, and conversion technology and waste-to-energy projects. He is a leader in the field of alternative delivery approaches, including design-build, design-build-operate and public-private partnerships and has taken the lead in drafting legislation required for the undertaking of such alternative procurements. Mr. West has also served as the lead negotiator for the development of several cutting-edge municipal infrastructure projects throughout the United States. He is highly experienced in the areas of public finance and procurement law, and he brings a unique knowledge to his law practice as he is a former Town Manager for municipalities in Massachusetts and Vermont.
