Brian J. Lamoureux, Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West Partner, Joins Judge and Court Spokesperson to Discuss Social Media in the Judiciary at RI Bar Association's Annual Meeting

Providence, RI – June 6, 2013 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Brian J.

Lamoureux will address the topic of social media and the judiciary as a workshop panelist at the Rhode Island Bar Association's 2013 Annual Meeting, June 13th and 14th at the Rhode Island Convention Center. Attorney Lamoureux will be joined by the Hon. Brian P. Stern, Associate Justice, RI Superior Court (@ribuscal) and Craig Berke, Director of Community Outreach, RI Supreme Court (@courtsri). The program will be moderated by Ted Nesi, Digital Reporter, WPRI-TV (@tednesi).

Opportunity Tweets: Social Media and Technology in the Judiciary will be offered at 10:45 a.m. on the second day of the conference (June 14th). With the explosion of Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and portable smart phone technology, many lawyers, judges and clients are concerned about how these technologies can and should be used in courts. The panelists will lead a discussion on their proper uses in and by the judiciary, addressing evidentiary issues, ethical concerns, jury conduct, and best practices for lawyers and judges to follow.

He is a published author and commentator on the use and abuse of social media in education and the workplace. His presentations and workshops incorporate the latest information from case law on social media use and provide practical tips for employers, educators, business leaders and other professionals. He has presented nationally to Fortune 150+ executives and thousands of business, marketing, educators and human resource executives in and beyond the local market.

Mr. Lamoureux is an accomplished business litigator in the areas of employment law, social media law, creditors' rights, surety law, construction law, student loan bankruptcy matters, and is qualified to serve as a receiver in Rhode Island Superior Court.
