PLDW Partner Brian J. Lamoureux Tapped by Leading Education Provider as Panelist for Social Media and Law Webinar for Municipalities

Providence, RI – January 8, 2014 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Brian J. Lamoureux, a widely recognized author and broadcast commentator on social media and the law, was invited by Stafford Publications to serve as a panelist for its upcoming webinar entitled, Social Media Pitfalls for Municipalities: Addressing First Amendment, Document Retention, Employment Issues and More. Stafford Publications is a leading provider of continuing education webinars, publications and programs to the legal, tax, accounting and security professions. The webinar is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 23, 2014 at 1:00 p.m. EST. The 90-minute session will examine the issues related to local governments' use of social networking, and include topics like developing and implementing social media policies, potential pitfalls, and best practices for municipalities to avoid legal risks. To learn more and to register, log on to Addressing Social Media for Municipalities.

Attorney Lamoureux is a member of the PLDW Litigation, Employment, and Corporate & Business Teams. He is an accomplished business litigator with an extensive practice in the areas of employment law, complex commercial litigation, social media law and creditors' rights. He is a nationally-recognized speaker on cutting-edge legal issues relating to social media, and has presented to thousands of individuals on the subject matter, including Fortune 150+ executives, other business leaders, employers, students, educators and HR executives. His essays, webinars and radio commentaries on social media and workplace issues have been published and distributed by local and national multimedia companies, and he is a frequent broadcast analyst on breaking news regarding legal issues associated with social media and the law.

In addition to his law practice, Attorney Lamoureux is an Adjunct Assistant Professor of Business Law at Providence College, his alma mater.
