PLDW Partner Bruce H. Tobey Invited to Speak on Public-Private Partnerships at the 2015 National League of Cities “Congress of Cities” Annual Conference

White Plains, NY – October 14, 2015 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Bruce H. Tobey, a leading authority on public-private partnerships (P3) and member of the firm’s Municipal Infrastructure Team, has been invited to participate as a panelist in a Public-Private Partnerships Boot Camp during the 2015 National League of Cities (NLC) “Congress of Cities” Annual Conference scheduled from November 4-7, 2015 in Nashville, TN. Attorney Tobey, along with co-panelists, Susan Mays, Vice President at CH2M and Mayor Mike Bodker of Johns Creek, GA, will present “Gaining Political Consensus” on Thursday, Nov. 5, 2015, from 10:50 am to 11:30 a.m. The NLC works in partnership with 49 state municipal leagues and serves as a resource to and an advocate for more than 19,000 cities, villages and towns throughout the U.S. Attorney Tobey, who served as the Mayor of Gloucester, MA from 1991-92 and 1994-2002, is a former member of the NLC’s Board of Directors, and chaired the organization’s environment policy committee and advisory council. To learn more about the conference, visit www.nlccongressofcities.com.

Attorney Tobey is a prominent municipal infrastructure practitioner and nationally recognized as a legal advisor on alternative project delivery models and financing for cities and towns, counties, public authorities and federal agencies, as well as private companies on environmental policy, programs, and financial and regulatory matters with a specialty in water and wastewater infrastructure, public-private partnerships, and other business development opportunities for sustainable communities. With more than 30 years of both public and private sector experience, Attorney Tobey has participated on numerous Federal Advisory Committees of the United State Environmental Protection Agency and testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Transportation and Infrastructure Committee's P3 Panel. He is also the former Chair of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Local Government Advisory Committee and served on the state's Federal Stimulus Task Force. He was President of the Massachusetts Municipal Association in 2008 and served as the 2013 President of its subsidiary, the Massachusetts Municipal Councillors' Association.
