PLDW Partner William P. Devereaux Elected to ResilientKids™ Board of Directors

Providence, RI – March 17, 2014 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner William P. Devereaux was elected to the Board of Directors of Rhode Island's ResilientKids™. The nonprofit organization's mission is to foster social, emotional, and academic growth through secular yoga and mindfulness curriculum that is integrated into schools by professionally-trained and dedicated educators.

"I am pleased to serve as a member of ResilientKids' Board of Directors to help the organization meet its goals," said Attorney Devereaux. "ResilientKids' leadership and teachers do extraordinary work in our schools to help our children learn and thrive. I am honored to be a part of this committed group of individuals."

Attorney Devereaux is a highly successful and well-respected attorney who leads the firm's Criminal Defense and Health Care Teams. He routinely handles complicated and high-profile criminal matters and was the first attorney in the United States to successfully negotiate a "Deferred Prosecution Agreement" for a health care provider. He represents individuals and corporations in the public, private, not-for-profit and nonprofit sectors, including hospitals, health care systems, clinical facilities and physicians.

His experience includes white-collar criminal defense and complex litigation at the state and federal level. Prior to entering private practice, Attorney Devereaux served as a lawyer for the Judge Advocate General and as a Rhode Island Assistant Attorney General during which time he prosecuted against organized crime, environmental violations and served as supervising attorney during Grand Jury investigations. He is a retired Captain in the United States Naval Reserve.
