FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West Partner and Municipal Infrastructure Legal Expert, Teno A. West, featured in national publication for US mayors

Providence, RI (March 10, 2010) – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Teno A. West was featured in the March 8 newspaper and online edition of U.S. MAYOR, a national publication that addresses topics of interest to mayors and their administrations across the country. Entitled, “A New Wave in Water Re-Use: The Hudson Valley,” the article was about West’s hands-on experience and expertise as lead legal representative for Rockland County, NY and its development of the first-of-its-kind, design-build-operate water reuse project in the State of New York. West presented the topic as an invited guest speaker and water law expert at the February meeting of the US Conference of Mayors.

West leads PLDW’s Municipal Infrastructure Team and is a national authority on public-private partnerships, water and wastewater law, solid waste management alternative energy projects and procurement law; and design-build-operate initiatives. West represents government agencies across the country in his practice area, including drafting legislation required for undertaking alternative procurements and design-build and design-build-operate projects.
