Attorney Paige E. Macnie Joins PLDO as an Associate

Rhode Island – December 16, 2021 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & O’Gara LLC (PLDO) announced that Paige E. Macnie has joined the firm as an Associate. Attorney Macnie focuses her practice on providing legal support across the firm’s practice areas, including as a member of the Litigation Team, assisting in client representation in all stages of litigation from pre-trial investigation and discovery, to motions and pleadings preparation through trial, settlement and the appeal process.

Attorney Macnie is an experienced legal researcher and writer, honing her skills as a Law Clerk at PLDO prior to her appointment as an Associate. Previous experience also includes working as an intern at the Worcester Trial Court Service Center. In addition to her practice, she volunteers her time as Chair of The John P. Burke Memorial Fund Scholar-Alumni Committee and is a member of the organization’s Scholarship Selection Committee.

Attorney Macnie earned her J.D. from New England Law, cum laude, where she was a CALI Award winner in Civil Procedure. She received her B.A., magna cum laude, in Political Science from Assumption University in Worcester, MA. She is licensed to practice in Rhode Island and is a member of the Rhode Island Bar Association.
