Paige E. Macnie is an Associate with Pannone Lopes Devereaux & O’Gara LLC. She focuses her practice on providing legal support across the firm’s practice areas, including as a member of the Litigation Team, assisting in client representation in all stages of litigation from pre-trial investigation and discovery, to motions and pleadings preparation through trial, settlement and the appeal process.

Attorney Macnie is an experienced legal researcher and writer, honing her skills as a Law Clerk at PLDO prior to her appointment as an Associate. Previous experience also includes working as an intern at the Worcester Trial Court Service Center.

In addition to her practice, she serves on the Board of The Burke Fund, volunteers her time as Chair of The John P. Burke Memorial Fund Scholar-Alumni Committee and is a member of the organization’s Scholarship Selection Committee.

Attorney Macnie earned her J.D. from New England Law, cum laude, where she was a CALI Award winner in Civil Procedure. She received her B.A., magna cum laude, in Political Science from Assumption University in Worcester, MA. She is licensed to practice in Rhode Island and is a member of the Rhode Island Bar Association.
